

The Zemel Choir

PRESENTS

Bloch's Sacred Service

SING FROM SCRATCH!

Bloch's Sacred Service is unique amongst Jewish liturgical repertory in being a full setting of the Sabbath morning prayers. Unfolding over five parts, the work is set for baritone soloist (representing the cantor), choir and orchestra who, in various combinations, blend high art with Jewish sacred sounds...

This March, the Zemel Choir invite you to learn, and perform, this beautiful work... from scratch! From Hebrew pronunciation to liturgical significance, Zemel's esteemed Musical Director, Benjamin Wolf, will guide you through the piece culminating in a final performance.

When: 10am - 7pm, Sunday 17 March

Where: Peter Samuel Hall NW3 2QG

Concert: Belsize Square Synagogue
NW3 4HX

Cost: £20 for the day

Contact: comeandsing@zemelchoir.org

In preparation, you are welcome to join Zemel at their weekly rehearsals at 8pm on 4 & 11 March, 120 Oakleigh Rd N, London N20 9EZ.

The Zemel Choir is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation.
